Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, technically, Sunday, is Mother's Day. A Happy Mother's Day to all mothers out there: Those ladies about to be mothers; those who are mothers already, be they younger "first-timers" or experienced with one or more by now; be they mothers whose young have left the nest or be they mothers of your pastor's "vintage" with children, grandchildren or even great-grandchildren. Also a Happy Mother's Day to those mothers who are no longer with us, but who are happily united to Our Lord, His Mother and the Father of us all in the Love of the Holy Spirit.

That's where my mother is. I think of her every day and, every day, I reflect on how I could have or should have loved her more while she was with me. I love her more than I can say. You out there with mothers who are entering their autumn or winter years, make the most of the time you have with that "special woman" in your life, the one who gave you life, who ushered you into this world, who changed your diapers, wiped your nose, took care of you when you were sick, was there for you whenever you needed her, though you might not have been there for her when she needed you. That woman who gave everything for you and expected nothing from you. Well, I better stop here, lest I not be able to complete this letter.

Though it be only a small token, please, all mothers, accept a token of your pastor's and this parish's affection. Flowers will be given to all mothers as they exit from church. I'll even try to have someone at the handicapped exit to pass out those tokens of our love and appreciation.

Many thanks to Father Bernie Danber who substituted for me while I was away in North Little Rock. Father Danber will, once again, be "on deck" next weekend for the 10AM Sunday Mass. After Mass in Minooka for the Poor Clares, and after my second wedding in this church – congratulations to Dan Wilk and Kristin Miller – I'll travel to Indianapolis to celebrate the 35th anniversary of priesthood of, quite probably, my best friend in the priesthood, Monsignor Joseph Schaedel. I've mentioned him, rather obliquely, from the pulpit once or twice. I was his associate pastor at Our Lady of the Most Holy Rosary in Indianapolis. He also served as Vicar General of the Archdiocese of Indianapolis and, in my opinion (yeah, I know, everyone has opinions) should have been made a bishop long ago. Well, as most priests would say, Divine Providence kept him from that.

My, how I go on. Please know of my love for you all, especially you mothers out there. God bless you, my children and my friends. Fr. M.
