Dear Parishioners,

Well, it looks like one of those times when we have so much to report that my weekly letter will be somewhat short this time. But, hey, it's all good news.

We are doing marvelously well in our response to the CMAA, the annual appeal. As of last Monday, we are less than $700 away from achieving our goal. Yet, you folks were so generous as to "over-pledge" this year. If you remember, our goal was $15,532. With great courage and determination, you pledged $19,890!!! That's $4,358 MORE than our goal. If we pay what we pledged, we will get back in excess of $3,000 as a rebate! All we have to do is simply make good on the amounts we pledged. Please, let's all do our part to make good on our pledges.

JVGPictures, an organization founded by Catholic home-schooling families in the Dallas area is sponsoring a film contest. The theme of a submitted film is to be Acts of Mercy. For info, please see JVGPictures' blog: <https://jvgpictures.blogspot.com/p/contests.html>.

Miles Christi, an organization of priests and brothers whose mission is the sanctification of the laity, with emphasis on young men and women, will be holding a family Evening of Recollection at St. Mary's Franciscan Monastery, 14246 Main St., Lemont, IL, from 6:15 to 9:30 PM. There is a plenary indulgence attached to this Evening of Recollection. There is no preregistration and no fee. For info, call Mike Strezo at 708-423-2580.

And for exciting, important info closer to home, it is my honor to present you with the names of our newly formed Parish Council and Finance Council members. Parish Council: Dan Whitler (President), Dorothy Tomasino, Paul O'Connor, Bob Kuprewicz and Joe Fieramosca. Finance Council: Karl Maurer (President), Susan Fronek, Larry Wolz, Jason Garcia and Ted Berman. Also, again, I present to you Bob Scheidt as our new Business Manager / Book Keeper. He began his duties last Thursday.

Work will soon begin on the several projects for which you contributed so generously over the last two+ years. I have been in contact with the diocese and several highly qualified vendors and contractors. This place is going to be "lookin' good" very soon. God bless you all, my children and my friends.

Father Magiera
