

Dear Parishioners,

Well, it's that time again. By that, I mean vacation time. As I've been doing for many years now, 19 to be exact, I'll be going to Florida again. I'll be away from Thursday, August 3 through Friday, August 25. This time, however, I'll have the chance to visit a few friends over my first week and then my brother-in-law and I will return to Marco Island.

I'll first visit a friend who used to accompany me on my vacations to Anna Maria Island. Then, I'll visit an old "singing buddy" of mine, Rita. Rita and I used to sing with The Philadelphia Singers and with The Opera Company of Philadelphia back in the 70s and early 80s. Rita also had a solo career of her own. We always had fun times together. Then, I'll be visiting a friend whom I met years ago at SS. Peter and Paul, Deacon Larry. He would serve as deacon or subdeacon there. He used to be the business manager at Holy Cross Church in Batavia, but now works for the Diocese of Venice.

I plan on celebrating Mass at two or three FSSP parishes/chapels: Christ the King Parish in Sarasota and Christ the King Chapel(s) in Naples. I just hope everything works out with my letters of suitability. They're sticklers in Florida about fingerprinting, background checks and protection of minors. Don't get me wrong, that's a good thing, but, hey, do fingerprints change over time? Don't think so. But some places have a "sell by" date on fingerprints, like five or six years. Older than that? Better get printed again.

In my absence, Father Rickert will be in charge. He has pastoral experience, more than I do, actually. He's also been here for extended periods several times, so we all know that he knows how things go here.

Things have been going very well with Father and me. To just about everyone he meets, he says how happy he is to be here with us. I'm sure we're all happy, too. God bless you, my dear family. Please pray for me.

Father Magiera
